Thank you for all the support all these years.

Ushering the God Of Wealth 2009

Lunar New Year falls on 26th January 2009.

It is the start of year for horoscope OX. Auspicious hours from 11pm – 1am & 3am - 9am, to usher the God of Wealth on the first day of Lunar New Year.

Those born in the year of Ox, Dog and Goat are not advisable to usher the God of Wealth into the house on this day as there is a conflict. If the Ox, Dog and Goat want to usher the God of Wealth on this day, the auspicious time is from 11pm – 1am. There is an auspicious constellation present at this timing that will ward off ill effects and bring luck to the three horoscopes.

Directions to usher God of Joy (Xi-Shen) is Southwest & God Of Nobility (Gui-Shen) is South.

The God of Joy brings marriage, romance and those who longs for children.

The God of Nobility brings benefactors and improves human relations.

Directions to usher God of Wealth (Cai-Shen) is East.

The God of Wealth brings in riches, promotions, increment, profits in business and career development.

You can pray in 1 direction to usher the 3 Gods. If you are interested to know the procedure in ushering the God of Wealth, Master Gwee will be glad to provide you free guidance.

Direct Conflict with the God of Year (犯太岁)

Those born in the year of OX have a direct conflict with the God Of Year (犯太岁). If one offends the God of Year, there will be endless troubles for the entire OX Year 2009. However, you can neutralize the ill effects by wearing a RAT pendant. It is best to combine the pendant with "Jade Emperor Chant" as it will increase the power of the auspicious item. Fulu Geomancy Centre offers this special service at S$38.

Indirect Conflict with the God of Year (冲太岁 & 刑太岁)

Those born in the year of GOAT and DOG have an indirect conflict with the God Of Year (冲太岁 & 刑太岁) respectively. Therefore, be careful of financial losses, legal matters, sickness and accidents. Wearing a HORSE pendant for those born in the year of GOAT and a RABBIT pendant for those born in the year of DOG will help to neutralize the ill effects and help to usher in good luck. It is best to combine the pendant with "Jade Emperor Chant" as it will increase the power of the auspicious item. Fulu Geomancy Centre offers this special service at S$38.

1st Day of Chinese New Year 2009

Inauspicious traveling direction is towards the East and West.

A word of caution for those with main house door facing the Northwest or Southwest. The Northwest "Five Ghost Constellation" will take it's position on this day and it will cause one to encounter rumors and meeting of villains. The South "Unlucky Deity" will take its position on the same day and it will cause one to meet inauspicious incidents. Bringing along "Luck Returns" or "Jade Gui Ren" (Benefactor) and walk backwards out of the house to avoid direct conflict. This will enable you to have a auspicious and bountiful year 2009.

The other 2 inauspicious time :

1) 7am-9am (Chen shi)

The "White Tiger Constellation" take its place. Avoid going out at this time.

Guards against bloodshed incidents, financial loss and sickness.

2) 11am-1pm (Wu shi)

The "Tian Lao Constellation" take its place. Avoid going out at this time.

Guards against loss of personal items, legal matters, villains and disharmony in relationship. If one needs to go out or travel, bring along "Luck Returns" or "Jade Gui Ren" (Benefactor) and you will be blessed for the whole year.

Luck Returns
