

6:30 PM- Start of tourMeeting and adjourn place: Raffles Hotel

First station – Shangri-La Hotel is “Fortune Guardian” pattern. The main door entrance to the hotel got 6 panels of door which 6 in Chinese dialect means “gain” / “reap”, will be prosperous.

Second station – Goodwood Park is situated on the field where we called it “Celebration of Harvest”. The grasshoppers live in the rice field, they don't do anything, yet they have something to eat during the harvest time, what a good life. Which means the hotel is like the grasshoppers, prosperous and good business.

Third station – Hyatt Hotel. The hotel door entrance has 4 panels of door which in Chinese means wealth comes in all 4 directions. 4 Courtyard structure in Qing and Ming dynasty were built according to fengshui. The rain water falls on the 4 corners of the roofs. Chinese believe that water is wealth. Rain water comes in and stay in the open court is a sign of good blessings from God.

Fourth station – Marriott Hotel. The pagoda's structure of the building looks like the pagoda in the popular forbidden love story of the white snake. The lady snake falls in love with a handsome, young scholar guy who had saved her. Then she transformed into a beautiful lady. They fell in love and got married. But the lady snake was punished by a monk and was prison in a pagoda structure. Their love is unshakable by this and still continued until their love was moved by the God and set the lady snake free. A very touching story so that is why it is very popular.

Fifth station – Paragon & Takashimaya is “Twin butterfly” scheme. This place is a field before which grow lots of fragrant flowers and attract butterflies, bees and other insects. During festival season this place is very mystifying. 2 means together. Together is harmony which gives success & good business.

Sixth station – Merit Mandarin Hotel is “Return of the Scholars” scheme. The Hotel doors have 8 door panels. It is based on the popular story of the “8 Immortals crossing the sea” story. The 8 Immortals competed with each other by throwing their weapon into the sea when they cross to see which of their weapon is more powerful. But unfortunately, their weapon is taken by the Sea Dragon's son and won't return it to them. So they fought over it killing the dragon prince and injuring the sea dragon king and his 2nd son. The fight was put to an end by the God's general. This is the story which means if there is unity and cooperation, the team can win.

Seventh station – Centrepoint and New Orchard Central is “Mandarin duck scheme”. The centrepoint is the male mandarin, looking for a mate to be his lifelong partner. The new orchard Central is the female mandarin duck which will be the future mate of the male. According to Chinese, the Mandarin duck is a loyal and faithful couple, which always represent in the marital bliss to be together forever. So in the future, these 2 businesses will also prosper.

Eight station – Geylang is a man's heaven place. The Geylang road looks like a centipede. The main road is the body while the small alleys are the legs. The head is facing Kallang River. The centipede lives in a shady, moist place. The business is more alive after dawn. There is lots of good food in this area which serves 24 hours. Also a lot of night establishments open around this area, well-known red light district. Geylang is also related to China. The map of China looks like a chicken. Hong Kong and Taiwan is the chicken's feet. Since Geylang resembles like a centipede and China resembles like a chicken which means centipede is the food of the chicken. So China and Singapore have a close relationship. So you can see a lot of Chinese people from China open restaurant around this area and make this area lively.
